Boston Wagner Society's Upcoming Events

BEN HEPPNER MASTERCLASS: Presented by Boston Wagner Institute

- Wednesday, July 19, 2023
- 2:00 PM 4:00 PM
- Boston Conservatory at Berklee: Houston Hall (map)

Internationally-recognized Wagnerian Ben Heppner will work with the young singers of the Boston Wagner Institute.

FREE to Boston Wagner Society members and Students with valid ID.
$20 to all others, payable in advance on our website, or at the door.

Carol Krusemark (MGH Voice) Vocal Health Seminar: Presented by BWI

- Thursday, July 20, 2023
- 2:00 PM 4:00 PM
- Boston Conservatory: Houston Hall (map)

Carole Krusemark is a vocal pathologist/singing voice specialist at the Center for Laryngeal Surgery and Voice Rehabilitation at the Massachusetts General Hospital and adjunct faculty at the Massachusetts General Hospital Institute of Health Professions. She will talk about care of the voice and how to ensure one has a long and healthy singing career. This will be an informative discussion for musicians and music appreciators just as much as vocalists.

FREE to Boston Wagner Society members and Students with valid ID.
$10 to all others payable in advance on our website or at the door.

JANE EAGLEN MASTERCLASS: Presented by Boston Wagner Institute

- Friday, July 21, 2023
- 2:00 PM 4:00 PM
- Boston Conservatory: Houston Hall (map)

Internationally-recognized Wagnerian, founder of BWI, and Boston Wagner Society President Jane Eaglen will work with the students of the Boston Wagner Institute in a public masterclass.

FREE to Boston Wagner Society members and Students with valid ID.
$20 to all others, payable in advance on our website, or at the door.

RENÉE TATUM MASTERCLASS: Presented by Boston Wagner Institute

- Saturday, July 22, 2023
- 2:00 PM 4:00 PM
- Boston Conservatory at Berklee: Houston Hall (map)

FREE to Boston Wagner Society members and Students with valid ID.
$20 to all others, payable in advance on our website, or at the door.

MARK DELAVAN MASTERCLASS: Presented by Boston Wagner Institute

- Tuesday, July 25, 2023
- 2:00 PM 4:00 PM
- Boston Conservatory at Berklee: Houston Hall (map)

International Wagnerian Mark Delavan will work with the young singers of the Boston Wagner Institute. The event will be in Houston Hall at Boston Conservatory at Berklee, who are our gracious hosts for the Institute.

FREE to Boston Wagner Society members and Students with valid ID.
$20 to all others, payable in advance on our website, or at the door.

Helen Greenwald: Wagner In Today's World, Musicology Lecture

- Wednesday, July 26, 2023
- 2:00 PM 4:00 PM
- Boston Conservatory: Houston Hall (map)

Helen Greenwald is a musicologist, cellist, and translator. Her scholarly interests center on vocal music of the 18th–20th centuries, and her work has appeared in a myriad of renowned published journals. She is the convenor and editor of the Oxford Handbook of Opera (Oxford University Press, 2014), a volume of fifty essays by an international array of scholars.

Dr. Greenwald will be discussing the complexities of performing Wagner in today's world. Can we reconcile the man or even separate him from his art?

FREE to Boston Wagner Society members and Students with valid ID.
$10 to all others payable in advance on our website or at the door.

Boston Wagner Institute 2023: FINALE CONCERT

- Saturday, July 29, 2023
- 4:00 PM 6:00 PM
- Boston Conservatory: Seully Hall (map)

Join us in celebrating the culmination of the BWI students' hard work this summer! This will be an all-Wagner concert featuring each student performing memorized, fully-staged Wagner scenes. Overseen and coached by Jane Eaglen, directed and staged by Danielle Wright, with the orchestral Brett Hodgdon and Robert Mollicone accompanying singers on piano.

FREE to Boston Wagner Society members and Students with valid ID.
$20 to all others, payable in advance on our website, or at the door.